

Department of Education
University of Oxford

Oxford Education Society

NQT EARLY CAREER DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

18TH JUNE 2016

---

In conjunction with the University of Oxford Education Deanery, the Oxford Education Society is delighted to invite all Newly Qualified Teachers in OUDE partnership schools to its inaugural NQT Conference.

The conference will be held on Saturday 18th June 2016 from 10am – 4pm. It will be located at the Department of Education and neighbouring college Lady Margaret Hall.

WHY ATTEND?

---

The Oxford Department of Education is committed to strengthening its contact with both local partnership teachers and alumni, and to supporting new teachers in their future careers.

The University of Oxford NQT conference will provide the opportunity to:

- exchange ideas and experiences with like-minded colleagues
- learn about new research in your subject
- consider possible routes to develop your teaching career
- indulge in discussions of 'blue sky' pedagogy that remind you why you are a teacher

Provisional programme:

The conference will consist of a keynote lecture, workshops and a lunch provided by Lady Margaret Hall. The choice of workshops will include a focus on de-escalating and preventing challenging behaviour lead by the acclaimed Mulberry Bush training centre; a panel discussion of the Prevent Agenda response to the issue of radicalisation in schools and a session on Mindfulness as a tool to build resilience in adolescence.

HOW TO BOOK

---

To secure your place go to the events page at <http://www.oxes.org.uk/> where you will be able to find the latest programme information and book your ticket. Tickets are subsidised by the Oxford Education Society and cost just £25. Please contact laura.molway@education.ox.ac.uk with any queries.